

I do not want the No Call List in Indiana weaken in any way. I love not have the telephone interrupt my evenings. I work as a sales person and I find other ways to reach prospects than by the phone. Banks and other agencies can have mail access just as I do. I can open that at a time convenient to me - not them!!